Miss Meloday Ann Stephens became the bride of Bradley Robert Halsey, Saturday, February 18, at the Greenwood United Methodist Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lavern Stephens, Canisteo RD 1 and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Halsey of Church Hill Greenwood.

The Rev. Howard Gabriel performed the double ring ceremony before the altar decorated with arrangements of blue hat baskets of daisies and carnations.

Matron of-honor was Mrs. Joycelle Hoyt, aunt of the bridegroom and best man was Thomas Hawkins, both of Greenwood.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of sheer dotted Swiss over taffeta, with an oval neckline accented with clung lace, full sleeves, modified Empire waistline, full drindle skirt accented with clung lace. She wore a white picture hat and carried a long-stemmed peach rose with white streamers. Mrs. Hoyt wore a navy blue gown with white lace and a navy blue picture hat. She carried a long-stemmed red rose with white streamers.

The reception followed the ceremony at the Methodist Social Hall for 100 guests. Mrs. David Warriner of Rexville RD aunt of the bride cut the wedding cake. The Misses Dawn and Darlene Warriner of Rexville RD, cousins of the bride, served. Miss Terri Halsey, sister of the bridegroom, passed the guest book. Miss Valerie Hoyt, cousin of the bridegroom presided at the punch bowl. A buffet lunch was catered by Mrs. Louise VanSkiver.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Greenwood Central School. The bride is employed at Alfred Ag-Tech State College at Alfred. The bridegroom served in the US Navy and is employed at North Main Lumber Company in Hornell. The couple live in the apartment of Mrs. Lewis Council in Greenwood.

Out-of-town guests attended from Arkport, Medina, Rexville, Wellsville and Pennsylvania.

Sylvia Patricia Bolanos was a speaker at the Busy Farmers and Farmerettes Senior Group 4-H Club recently. She is an exchange student from Guatemala, and has been staying with the John Leonard, Jr., family of Troupsburg. She gave an interesting talk about her Country and compared her school to ours. She also displayed a native costume made by the Indians of her country and other handiwork. The 4-H members enjoyed enchiladas made and served by Patty (as she likes to be called).

The Junior 4-H girls of the Busy Farmers and Farmerettes have recently completed their food project "Snack Wisely".

The Senior girls have completed a project on making pics. Both groups will now begin sewing pro-
