Sgt Jackson, a career Airman, is currently stationed at Scott Air Force Base in Illinois.

The Citation to Accompany the Award of The Meritorious Service Medal states:

Senior Master Sergeant Clyde W. Jackson distinguished himself in the performance of outstanding service to the United States as Noncommissioned Officer in Charge of Management, Data Automation, 438 Air Base Group, 438 Military Airlift Wing, McGuire Air Force Base, New Jersey, from 20 April 1972 to 30 November 1977. During this period Sergeant Jackson's outstanding professional skill, knowledge and overall technical competence were significant and substantial contributions to Data Automation's mission-performing capabilities. Much of the credit for Data Automation's outstanding service during this period is directly attributable to his efforts. The singularly distinctive accomplishments of Sergeant Jackson reflect great credit upon himself and the United States Air Force.

United Methodist Sunday School News

The lower elementary and primary grades are learning two songs to sing at the 11 o'clock worship hour on Mother's Day, May 14th. We hope all parents will be present at this service.

The Senior High School class met at the home of their teacher Alan Tuttle, on Sunday, April 10th for their class and hot chocolate.

The Senior High will hold a pizza party at the Church Fellowship room this Sunday, April 23rd at 5 o'clock. Games will be played. Mr. and Mrs. Alan Tuttle, Rev. and Mrs. Howard Gabriel and Miss Doris Church will be the adults present. 4th of July Parade Committee to Hold Annual Auction

Leon McNeill, Chairman of the Fourth of July Committee, today announced that the Annual Auction for the benefit of the Fourth of July Committee to help defray the cost of the Annual Fourth of July Celebration in Andover, will be held at the Andover Rod & Gun Club on Sunday, May 21, 1978 starting at 12:00 Noon.

"Lew" Cicirello of Wellsville will be the Auctioneer and says that he will be in fine shape for a real spirited performance and promises lots of action and surprises.

Anyone wishing to donate items to this worthy cause may call -- Leon McNeill at 478-8676 from 8:55 or 478-8287 after 5; or "Red" Mickle at 478-8440; or "Red" Allen at the Andover News at 478-8344 to arrange to have your items picked up. "Leon" states that no article is too big or too small and that this includes anyone in the rural areas who has anything they wish to donate.

Snacks, sandwiches and refreshments will be available at a reasonable price all day so don't forget to mark this date down on your calendar for a day of fun and excitement to help keep the Andover Fourth of July Celebration rolling.

Bloodmobile To Be In Andover April 26 - ACS Cafeteria

On Wednesday, April 26, from 2:00 to 6:00 the Rochester Regional Bloodmobile will be at the Andover Central School. The Andover Jr. Red Cross -- under the supervision of Mrs. Burger, will assist -- not only at the Canteen, but in any other way that they can help.

Many other students help set up the Red Cross unit and are always available when it is time to take it down. There are also the many good cooks who donate their cookies to the cause, the nurses who so willingly volunteer their services as well as helpers for the Canteen bottle labeling, registration -- it's unbelievable how many people help in this effort.

All these efforts would be in vain without you the donors so keep that date in mind. Wednesday April 26th -- 2:00 to 6:00, -- and we'll see you all at the ACS Cafeteria.

BLOODMOBILE CHAIRMAN Virginia Milligan
