Track News

Wednesday, April 26, the day was sunny — about 80 and Andover had a Track Meet.

There were three first places taken: Eric MacMichael, First in the 100 yd Dash; Tony Dougherty First in the Pole Vault; and Brett Grossman, First in the Triple Jump. There were also a lot of other good efforts at the Meet. With lots of support from the Andover fans this Team will go a long way this year.

Baseball News

Congratulations to the Andover Baseball Team for their fine victory over Belfast. It was the Andover Panthers 3 and Belfast 2 in League action. The Panthers are now 2 - 0 this season in Baseball. Outstanding performances by Rex Vosburg, Pat Atwell, Mike McNeill, and Joe Howland — a fine effort. Atwell struck out 11 batters, while driving in 2 of the Panther's 2 runs. Mike McNeill had the other RBI.

Their next game is with Bolivar. Keep up the good effort and GOOD LUCK BOYS!

Receives Awards

Miss Wendy Lynn Hornung of Andover was the recipient of the Pi Gamma Mu Achievement Award at Honors Convocation on May 1 at Keuka College.

This award is presented to the highest-ranking sophomore who as a freshman, received honors in the social sciences. Pi Gamma Mu is a national honorary social science fraternity.

Miss Hornung was also awarded the Sprague Prize in History. This prize is awarded annually for the best paper written in a history course at the College. Her essay was entitled "And The Wall Came Tumbling Down."

Miss Hornung is a member of the class of 1980 and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin G. Hornung of RD 2, Davis Hill Road.

Founded in 1890, Keuka College is an independent, four-year college for women located in the Finger Lakes region of upstate New York. The college, which has an enrollment of 600 students grants the B.A. degree in fifteen liberal arts fields and the B.S. degree in nursing, elementary education, and social work. A special feature of the college curriculum is a Field Period of related off-campus work, now in its 35th year.
