

GREENWOOD NEWS

Grace Young, Reporter

Lawrence Acker of Wellsville... home Monday after spending... weeks in Wellsville. Miss Eleanor...

Former Teacher and Coach at Greenwood Central... received his Doctor of Education Degree in Educational Administration...

Edward Mullen, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mullen Sr. received his BS Degree in Sociology from State University College...

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DeFazio of Orlando, Florida, arrived here Tuesday to spend the summer at their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Heston had the misfortune to lose their camper home in Texas. It is reported a fire broke out and the camper fell into the Gulf of Mexico...

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton York spent the weekend at Washington, D. C. to help their daughter, Miss Betty York move.

The Official Visit of the OES District Officers, Patricia C. Shuart District Deputy Grand Matron and James D. Osgood, District Grand Lecturer, was held Monday night, May 15, at the Greenwood Masonic Hall.

Elaine Allen, Louise Nye Lott, South Bernice Mann and Bernice Osmin attended the District Visitation of Grand Officers at Troopsburg Masonic Hall May 17.

Howard Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Moore of Greenwood and Annette Ahearn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ahearn of Bevilleville, have been named Valedictorian and Salutatorian of the Class of 1978 at Greenwood Central School.

Howard's activities include soccer, basketball and jazz. He also plays guitar in the Jazz Ensemble Concert and Marching Bands. He is a member of the National Honor Society and President of the Senior Class.

Annette is a member of the National Honor Society, Concert and Marching Band, Jazz Ensemble playing both piano and cornet. She is the Editor of this year's Triple Terrace yearbook and also DAR Award winner for good Citizenship. She plans to attend Alfred Agricultural & Technical College.

Baccalaureate will be Sunday

June 18 at 8:15 P. M. at the Latter Day Saints Church. Graduation will be held Friday evening, June 23 at 7:30 P. M.

The Class, June 20 at 7:30 P. M. at Kirshengarten Graduation. All parents, friends and relatives of students in Grades are invited to attend this year's graduation and music program.

Mrs. Winifred Cole was guest speaker at the Greenwood L. M. Church, Sunday, May 28. Rev. and Mrs. Howard Gabriel are on a week's vacation and he performed a wedding ceremony at a former parish, Saturday, May 27.

The Jazz Ensemble Dinner Concert will be Friday, June 16. The main course will be barbecued chicken. The Band Boosters are organizing this event to raise money to help with the cost of the Marching Band.

The Fourth Grade has exchanged information and articles with the 4th Grade of Stilwell, Oklahoma. They have received from Stilwell, 3 strawberry plants, Jam and recipes, a black wax, an olive pecans, saffras roots, arrow heads, mistletoe, millet, peanuts in the shell and a well formed sand-barite rosette stone.

The Third Grade hatched chickens and bird eggs. They each brought a recipe and held a Mothers Tea, Friday, May 12 and gave the mothers a recipe book.

The Athletic Sports Banquet will be held Friday, June 9, at 8 P. M. The Senior Citizens will meet Wednesday Noon, June 7 at the United Methodist Church.

The Senior High Public Speaking Contest comes from classroom experience. Each student's speech is judged by classmates, making competition very keen. The best speakers from each class are chosen to "go downstairs" to present their speeches in competition at an Assembly.

Wednesday evening, June 7, the Music Department will present the Spring Concert. This is a combined Band and Choral Concert. Among pieces the Chorus will present are "Scarborough Fair" by Simon and Garfunkel and an exciting Jazz and Rock piece called "Hope For The Future". The Band has worked hard on "Acoustics" a composition written by the director Scott Kickbush.

The Marching Band has 85 students in the Band and Colorguard. Parents help at each parade as chaperons and counselors. Students are to be at the school at 6:15, June 3 for the Dairy Festival parade at B. H. at 10:30.

Mrs. Virginia York gives Media Center News. The gifts include: Two Library Books given in memory of Mrs. Pearl Hillman, "The Kid's 50 State Cookbook" from Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCaffrey and Bobby and Casey. "The Best of Life" from Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Holt.

Science Department News: our School participates in Chemistry Bowl. Last Saturday, May 20, was busy. While the Band was marching in Dansville, the County Track Meet was going on at Campbell and the Bath Invitational Tournament was going on at Addison.

At the May meeting of the Board of Education, the Board approved a change in the 9th Grade Science Program. Students in Grade 9 will take General Science instead of Earth Science, Biology, Chemistry and Physics will be offered during their last three years of High School.

Mrs. Janet Jackson visited the 6th Grade recently and showed her pictures of their trip to Great Britain. The class enjoyed her film and had many questions answered about life in England and Scotland today.

This year marked the beginning of the Junior High Speaking Contest. There were 22 students from the 7th and 8th Grades who participated. They wrote their own speeches, with a wide range of topics. Some were very creative while others required a great deal of library research.

Principal Donald Gooley is proud to announce that Sandy Hunt has been selected from among a great number of applicants from all over the U.S. to attend a 7 week long summer Science Institute at the Buffalo University Great Lakes Laboratory on Lake Erie.

50 YEARS AGO

September 23, 1927

J. H. Backus, Publisher

At a special election of Union Free School District I in the Town of Andover Tuesday evening, the proposition to bond the District for $85,000 was carried by an overwhelming vote of 132 for and 12 against to build a new school addition.

W. G. Pope, District Superintendent, will hold a Teachers' Conference Sept. 23 at the New High School Auditorium in Wellsville, for all District School Teachers.

Blackberries have been a good crop in Andover this year.

Prof. O. H. Simpson has moved his family from Andover to Alfred where he expects to do post graduate work in the University this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Crossett of Arkport, are parents of a son born Sept. 18. Mrs. Crossett was the former Miss Dasa DeRember of Andover.

The name of Miss Doris Tubbs of Salamanca, appears among the list of students at Alfred University this year. Miss Doris is the daughter of Supt. and Mrs. Levi Tubbs of Salamanca, former Andover residents.

There are 190 Freshmen registered at Alfred University.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Fitzpatrick of Clyde, are parents of a son born Sept. 3. Mrs. Fitzpatrick is the former Miss Elizabeth Sullivan, daughter of the late Dr. Sullivan, former Andover residents.

Miss Francis Brundage a 1926 graduate of AHS, has entered the Sisters Charities Hospital at Buffalo for nurse's training. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brundage accompanied their daughter to the city remaining for the day.

Joseph Lynch is improving the property on Center St. purchased by him of Thomas McTighe. The house is being repainted and a three car garage being built at the rear of the grounds.

John Wahl of Andover delivered furniture for Anthony Dougherty of South Hill, Monday.

Miss Erma Burdick of Elm Valley is attending the State Normal School in Cortland this year.

The new bridge over Woodward Creek on the Greenwood and Jasper Road is causing trouble. To get a solid foundation to build abutments they are driving piles 20 feet long without sharpening and they drive very easily. There has to be 164 piles driven to get a proper foundation to hold the bridge. You can set a crowbar up in the soil and it will go out of sight.

Mr. and Mrs. Gussie O'Dell and daughter, Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Holt and daughter, Madeline of Greenwood were in Hornell Saturday.

Miss Rilma DeRemer came home Tuesday from Kearney, N. J., for two weeks vacation. She is attending Nurses Training School.

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Atkins and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Brownell and daughters Daphne and Barbara left Saturday morning by car for Winterhaven, Florida, where they will pass the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Dougherty and family were in Wellsville on Thursday to attend the marriage of their son, Anthony to Miss Florence Danier.

Carl Hann and Miss Eva Rennells left this week for Fredonia Normal, where they will enter the Music Department for a course of study.

Miss Elizabeth Cannon left Wednesday evening for Wellsley College to resume her course of studies there.

Mrs. Grace Howland and sons Charles and Clifford and Miss Margaret Dougherty were in Rochester, Saturday. Clifford remained where he is employed as a Standard Oil Comping Filling Station.

Harry Williams and his Andover Boys Band played at Whitesville Saturday.

Miss Mary Allen of Alfred Station and Harold Green of East Valley, were married September 1. They will reside on the Charles Burdick farm in East Valley.

Mrs. Lily Woodworth died at her home in Hartsville, September

12 at the age of 67. Her husband, George and one sister survive. Her son, C. Mapes of Hallsport, died September 10. He was born in 1869 and leaves his wife, one son and one daughter.

Miss Sara Bettinger has returned to Elmira College for her senior year.

Howard Leahy has returned to New York City where he is a student at Fordham College.

The Misses Ruth Parker and Mable Wagner have returned to Alfred University for their senior year.

New Fall Dresses $10.75; Women's Outing Night Dresses 98c; Boys and Girls Gym Shoes, white with black trim 98c; Women's Pumps and Oxfords, priced to $5.00, Special $1.95 at James P. Cannon & Company.

40 YEARS AGO

September 24, 1937

Clare C. Backus, Publisher

Andover people are asked to conserve water - residents are wasting water by letting it run, says Village Board members. The pumps are forced to run daily.

Frank Martin, a former resident of Andover, has retired from the Erie Railroad after 47 years and 4 months. He is nearing his 70th birthday. He was operator of the Andover Tower until it was discontinued, then he worked at Tip Top. Several years ago he purchased a farm between Scio and Belmont, where he made his home and continued to work the Erie at the Cuba Cut-Off.

In a picture of the Railroad Valley School, taken about 40 years ago, Mrs. C. S. Rennells named all but two of the pupils correctly and won a year's Subscription to the Andover News. The pupils pictured are: LaVern Langworthy, John Mulcahy, Patrick Muleahy, Michael Lynch, George Bennett, Wm. Green, Edward Green, Bert Langworthy, Frank Langworthy, Miles Davenport, John Monroe, Harry Green, Edison Langworthy, Daniel Mulcahy, John Dodge, Tom Mulcahy, Mina Jones, Myra Langworthy, Edith Bennett, Grace Bennett, Euphemia Green, Alice Bennett, William Mulcahy, Charles Dodge, Harry Miles, Katherine Mulcahy, Ella Mulcahy, Claresa Green, Lynn Langworthy, Edward Burdick, Celia Manroe, Mary Dodge, Levi Dodge, Ernest Green, Elsie Dodge, Clifford Burdick and Glenn Burdick.

The Firemen are planning an Indoor Fair, October 15 and 16 in Harmony Hall. Chief Cläre Jackson is General Chairman; assisted by Oliver Kemp, Music; George Wreley, Advertising; Orville Kupp, Tickets and Carl Childs, Entertainment. The Wellsville Milling Company has rented the Beebe Store, corner of Main and Center Streets, and will open a branch feed store there in the near future in which they will carry a full line of Park and Pollard Feed.

An airplane landed on the Conley Farm, Tuesday. The plane, a Taylor Cub, was piloted by "Bud" Neville of Syracuse. "Bud" was a former pilot at Roosevelt Field on Long Island, and has been giving flying instructions in Wellsville and came to Andover to look over the flying facilities here. He expects to return Saturday and Sunday to give an exhibition of stunt flying and will take passengers.

Mrs. Olive Clark, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Dever Clark of Greenwood and Everett Crocken of Nunda were married September 17.

Wyman Krusen of Greenwood, was in Lima, Ohio, Monday and drove in a new 42 Passenger Dodge School Bus.

Miss Orpha Green is spending the week at the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Atwell in Elm Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ruger, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Ruger and daughter, Lois, motored to Keuka Lake, Sunday.

Mrs. Irving Gilfillan entertained 17 boys and girls Saturday evening at a 7 o'clock dinner in honor of the Misses Anne and Martha McDonough.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Clair entertained a party of friends at a 1 o'clock surprise luncheon in honor of the birthday of Miss Minnie, Clair.

Seven graduates of the 1937 Class of AHS, have entered Alfred University. They are: Farnham Pope, Jean Millsbaugh, Cleon Pease, Lester Regan, William Woodruff, Alan Tuttle and Bruce McGill.

Continued on Page 4

THE ANDOVER NEWS

Published Weekly at the News Printing House, Andover, N. Y. Jeanne Backus Allen and Ralph A. Allen, Owners, Andover, N. Y. Entered as Second Class Mail Matter at the Post Office at Andover, N. Y., 14806, under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879. Subscription Price: $6.00 per year

(Continued on Page 3)