

GREENWOOD NEWS

Grace Young, Reporter

A near capacity crowd attended the Seventy-fifth Annual Commencement Program at Greenwood Central School, Friday night. Diplomas were presented the Class of 25 by John Hunt, President of the Board of Education. June Rollins & Scott Kickbush played the Professional and Recessional. Elder Carol Bassett gave the Invocation and Rev. Francis Burr of St. Mary's Church, the Benediction preceded by a few words to the Class. Annette Ahearn, Salutatorian, gave greetings and commented on their 13 years together, giving credit to parents, teachers, and friends. Howard Moore, Valedictorian, spoke about their years together and now it is their turn to make a mark in the world. The Jazz Ensemble, of ten Seniors played "If" by David Gates, and Twila Neuschwander, Lisa and Faith Reisman sang "Born Again" traditional. Jeff Ahearn and Sandy Hunt, Student Council Officers gave out Senior Awards, School Letters for Sports, Music and pins earned by points. They also recognized the Teacher of the Year Steve Kickbush, English, chosen by the students.

Supervising Principal Donald Gooley, announced and presented Awards beginning with three citations to student aides Veronica Jarrabet, Annette Ahearn and John Edwards. A quarter of the Class are members of the National Honor Society: Howard Moore, Annette Ahearn, Bonnie Siebert, Sandra Dennison, Douglas Warriner, Anita Neuschwander, Linda Wiley.

Babe Ruth Award - Girl - Shelly Lamphier; Boy - Chris Harkenrider

Lillian Bird Memorial Faculty English - Howard Moore PTSCO, Commercial - Anita Neuschwander; Music, Annette Ahearn; Home Ec., Bonnie Siebert DAR Senior Citizenship Award - Annette Ahearn; Citizenship Certificates - Sandy Dennison and Shelly Lamphier

4-H Home Economics Award - Annette Ahearn First State Bank - Veronica Jarrabet

Jerry Burd Memorial Scouting Award - Allyn Krusen Dekalb Agriculture Award - Shelly Lamphier

Bausch & Lomb Science Award - Howard Moore

Achievement Awards - Sandy Dennison, Annette Ahearn, John Edwards, Anita Neuschwander West Greenwood Grange

Annette Ahearn Service Key - Annette Ahearn Greenwood Memorial Scholarship Awards - $200 each - Veronica Jarrabet, Douglas Warriner, Annette Ahearn and John Edwards Alternate

Regen's Scholarship - Sandy Dennison, Howard Moore Linda Wiley

Each graduate also receives a $500 per year scholarship awarded by the Board of Education.

Miss Holman, Lumber Company Centennial Scholarship - Michael Murphy

BOCES William Schick Award - Joseph Smith

Alfred University Scholarship - Howard Moore

Each graduate also receives a photostat miniature diploma and $5.00 cash award from Canisteo Savings & Loan Association.

Tuesday evening was Kindergarten Commencement. Louis Petroni directed K - 2 Grades in motion songs and using rhythm instruments. Mrs. Butler, teacher, presented diplomas to 23 children - Jeffrey A. Herberton, Robert Cady, William Cunningham, Tracie Dean, Crystal Feenaughty, Cory Holt, Joseph Jensen, Sonja Keil, Kerri Mayo, Tiffany McCaffery, Eric Meehan, Michael O'Brien, Scott Peck, Scott Plank, Stephanie Schwartz, Heath Studer, Ricky Studer, Robert Studer, David Tracy, Jonathon Warriner, Nancy Wehner, Nancy Wheaton & Krista Wiley.

Refreshments were served afterwards to parents and guests. Home Room Mothers, Anna Marie Schwartz, Theresa Wheaton, Lynn Holt, Alice Marie Peck met with and made cupcakes for the graduation. Mrs. Schwartz for breakfast, Tuesday. Donna Tracy also a Home Room mother, was working. Mrs. Butler and her father from Addison, were breakfast guests. The children also had cake for lunch Wednesday.

Early Sunday, Gary Moore took Kevin Moore and Jeff Ahearn to Bath to meet the Bus taking County School Juniors to Morristown Community College for a week at boys State, sponsored by the American Legion, Greenwood Birmingham-Burd Post, also taking Pat Cornell of Jasper. Mrs. James Ahearn picks up the boys Saturday to bring them home.

Scott Kickbush and the Marching Band, will enter the Andover Fourth of July Parade.

As Rural Letter Carriers retire they are not replaced. Lloyd Chaffee now goes into Andover Post Office and does Elm Valley, Pingrey Hill and the balance of West Greenwood.

Lyle Smith of West Union has moved to Whitesville and resigned as Town Councilman after serving 24 years on the Town Board. His son, Jerry Smith, has been appointed by the Board to serve until the end of the year. The pos. will be on the Ballot in November. The Town Board and Assessors met May 24 with Milton Crane of Steuben County Real Property Tax Department to make arrangements for the move to 100 per cent property valuation. Letters were mailed to property owners. The project is funded by the County with Town and Federal manpower funds.

Election Inspectors were appointed: Virginia Meehan and Bernice Birmingham, Democrats; Mary C. Lewis, and Margaret Lewis Democratic Alternates. Lauretta Birmingham, and Sharon Harkenrider Republicans; Janice Losey and Mildred Edwards Republican Alternates.

The County Assessors worked with Greenwood Assessors from May to June 15. They moved them to Rexville and that Town will complete the County. Assessors: Gerald Mullen, Barbara Mills, Franklyn Krusen and Committee: Marion Streeter, John Driscoll & Wayne Brewster, appointed by Supervisor John Helgeson, met at the Town Hall, Tuesday and Wednesday nights to explain any changes to the people as the former Grievance Day.

The Senior Citizens will meet at the United Methodist Church, Wednesday, July 5, for their Noon dinner meeting. Stanley Murray will speak on local history.

Mrs. Margaret Rollins entertained her granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Becker and daughter, a son and his two sisters and their husbands, Sunday night, on their way to Virginia.

Over 50 members of the Andover Greenwood Parishes of the United Methodist Church, met at the West Greenwood Grange Hall Sunday, June 25 for an 11 P. M. worship service. A coroner, Trix, June Rollins, Debbie Rollins and Patricia Lamphier played special music and led for singing. Mr. Huffcutt and Mrs. Cook of Andover, sang a duet "The Church is the Wildwood". Rev. Gabriel talked on God in Nature. A picnic dinner fellowship followed, in charge of co-chairmen Harriet Redmond and Doris Church. Mrs. Redmond was speaker last Tuesday evening at the Andover United Methodist Women, Sunday, July 9. Rev. John Baxter of the Andover Presbyterian Church, will be guest speaker at the Greenwood 9-45 service. The Andover Methodist and Presbyterian Churches have united summer services. In July at the Presbyterian Church at 10 A. M.

The Order of Eastern Stars held a picnic, Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Streeter to close until September. There were 20 members and guests including out of town. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hale, Mrs. Irene Edwards of Hornell, Mrs. Rose Brundage of Scio and Mrs. Pauline Graves of Wellsville.

Bob Davenport bid the old school in Rexville and was given the right to tear down the building and take it away. He has a year to complete the project. He hopes to salvage enough to build a house and garage.

Mrs. Duane Coates, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Bill Schwartz, entertained a group of children Saturday for the birthday of her son Tommy.

Walter B. Manion, 66, of Wellsville, died Wednesday at Strong Memorial Hospital, from a skull fracture, received last Thursday in a pedestrian-truck accident in Wellsville. The truck was driven by Donald Deschler, 20, of Wellsville.

Mr. Manion was born in Wellsville, July 25, 1911, the son of Joseph and Ethel Monaghan Manion.

He married the former Louise Rogers, daughter of the late Friedman and Mildred Pease Rogers, in 1940. She survives with a son James Manion and two grandchildren of Wellsville; two brothers, Gilbert of Wellsville and Clement of Olean, and nieces and nephews.

He was a welder at the Sinclair Refinery for 25 years, and later a welder for Turbodyne for 17 years, retiring in 1976. He was a member of Immaculate Conception Church and its Holy Name Society. He was a member of Emerald Hook & Ladder Co., No. 3.

Friends called at the Embser Funeral Home in Wellsville, Friday, the Rosary was recited Friday evening, there. Mass of Christian Burial was held Saturday A. M. at Immaculate Conception Church with the Rev. James Grimmer Pastor, officiating. Burial was in Sacred Heart Cemetery, Wellsville.

Memorial may be given to the church Renovation Fund or the Wellsville Ambulance Corp.

Robert Davenport was a patient at St. James Mercy Hospital from Tuesday to Thursday.

Michelle McNult entered Bethesda Hospital, Tuesday.

Mrs. Angie Eldridge returned home Thursday from St. James Mercy Hospital, where she was a patient for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Halsey (Melody Stephens) are parents of a daughter born Friday, June 23, 1978 at Jones Memorial Hospital. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Stephens and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Halsey. Great grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Holt, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Halsey and great-great grandmother is Mrs. Grace Holt.

Mrs. Marilyn Wyant and friend, Mrs. Gloria Burbridge of Canisteo and Mrs. Dawn Loper of Wellsville, brought dinner and spent Father's Day, Sunday with their father and grandfather, Francis Acker.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Murray went to Saamara, Monday, June 19, to visit their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Kilbourn.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Dwight Young of Valley Stream, visited his sister Miss Grace Young, Tuesday to Thursday. They went to Niagara Falls, where Mr. Young is a delegate at the Credit Union Convention until Sunday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Canty of Belmont met her daughter, Mrs. Paul Karst of North Dakota, at the Buffalo Airport, Monday. They spent Wednesday to Friday with their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Hulda McDonough and went to Boyds Corners Park, Wednesday and Stony Brook Park, Thursday.

Mrs. Dan Casey and daughters Teresa and Joanne of Altonna, Pa. came Friday to spend two weeks with her mother, Mrs. Gerald Greene. Dan Casey is in the Naval Reserves and on a two weeks tour of duty. She also visited her grandmothers, Mrs. Lawrence Greene and Mrs. Irene Zeltwanger of Canisteo.

Miss Denise Higgins is working for the summer at the Elmhurst Store, Seneca Street, Hornell.

Mrs. Laureen Kickbush was on the Dean's List at Alfred University for the Spring Semester.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Moore and family of Ontario, were weekend guests of his mother, Mrs. Florence Moore and attended the High School graduation of his nephew, Mark Bettinger. Mrs. Mildred Clark and Bradley Clark, grand-mother and brother, also attended Mark's graduation.

Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Frey of Akron, spent the weekend with her (Continued on Page 3)

50 YEARS AGO

October 28, 1927

J. H. Backus, Publisher

Archie Monte, a former Andover man and Silk Mill employee, died Monday, October 24, in the office of Dr. Sullivan, of acute indigestion. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Henrietta Monte; one daughter, Henrietta; one son, Archie, his mother, Mrs. T. Monte two brothers, John and Enreco of Jersey City, N. Y. Burial was in St. Peter's Cemetery, Haverstraw, N. Y.

Stephen Byron Wilber died at his home on Center Street, October 25 at the age of 67. He was born in Coleville, Pa., a son of Stephen and Charity Wilber. He is survived by his widow, five children, Clarence of Cleveland Mrs. Clifford Sherwood of Bolivar Mrs. Myrtle Yeager of Andover Newton of Andover, and Mrs. D. P. Brainlette of Fresno, Calif; 9 grandchildren; one brother, A. Wilber and two sisters, Mrs. Dale Nichols of Java Village and Mrs. Alva Paul of Buffalo. Burial was in Bolivar.

The Andover Band and Orchestra consisting of 60 musicians, will give their first consolidated concert, November 2 at the Palace Theatre.

The body of Michael Graham was brought from Binghamton, Sunday to the home of his son, Frank in Rexville. The funeral was held at St. Mary's Church, Monday A. M.

Mr. P. J. Dougherty entertained Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Dougherty and Mr. and Mrs. John Daniher of Wellsville at Sunday dinner in honor of her sister, Mrs. B. Doran of Friendship, who is her guest.

Mrs. W. F. O'Connell entertained at a bridge luncheon, Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Jones of Pike, are parents of a son, Robert born October 22. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jones of Andover are the grandparents.

Rev. Noel Spicer of Illinois and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Beach, Karlov and Dorr Burr of Hornell, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Spicer of Independence.

W. C. O'Dell and Gusste of Greenwood were in Arkport on business, Sunday.

Alfred Teribury died at his home in Penn Yan. His body was brought to the home of his son, Will in Greenwood, where funeral services were held Sunday. Burial was in Bennetts Creek Cemetery.

Dr. S. B. Scott was visiting in Buffalo, Sunday.

Mrs. Ora Woodworth of Alfred Station, died October 15 at the Bethesda Hospital in Hornell. She was born in Greenwood in 1881. She is survived by her husband and one daughter.

Clifford Howland of Rochester passed the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howland.

Mrs. Ralph Burgett and Mrs. Clarence Meade were in charge of the Cheesman Drug Store during the absence of Mr. Cheesman this week, who was visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. N. C. Searles of Seneca Falls, Tuesday and Wednesday.

40 YEARS AGO

October 22, 1937

Claire C. Backus, Publisher

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Burdick celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with an Open House for 200 guests. Truman Burdick and Mary Emma Collins were married October 12, 1887 by the Rev. E. H. Scowell, at the home of Mrs. Hannah Saunders of Randolph.

Mahlon Hainer, father of Mrs. James Barber, died at his home in Bennetts, October 21 at the age of 75. He is survived by his widow Mrs. Anna Haines, an adopted daughter, Mrs. James Barber of Andover, three stepsons, eight grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Burial was in Angelica.

Andover Rebekah Lodge No. 303 entertained the District Deputy President, Mrs. Marion Woodard and Staff of Allentown, Wednesday for installation of the following officers: Hazel Burgett Past Noble Grand, Nora Higby Noble Grand, Berneta Wereley Vice Grand, Doris Howland Recording Secretary Hazel Jones Financial Secretary Jennie Carr Treasurer, Pauline Gray Chaplain, Pearl Mesler Warden, Clara Hann Conductor, Grace Wagner Inside Guardian, Hazel Ordway Outside Guardian, Laura Wither RSNB, Mertie Mings RSNB, Marie Hammond RSVG Mary West LSVG, Ida Burdick RAS, Gertrude Benjamin LAS, Mina Wentworth RLS, Martha Bloss LSSC, Carrie Boyd and Fannie Lehman right and left Support to Past Noble Grand, Vinnie Vickers Degree Mistress and Bertha Hardy Musician.

Miss Katherine Elnora McMann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McMann and Karl Loren Pingrey, son of Mrs. Bertha Pingrey of Greenport, L. I., were married on October 16.

Mrs. William Hammell, died October 15, Agnes Rhoda, daughter of the late James and Sara Clementine Fulmer Parker, was born February 24, 1873. On December 18, 1902, she married William Hammell, who survives with two daughters, Mrs. Kenneth Bruner of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Robert T. Sherman of Brunswick, Ga.; two sons, Frederick and Paul Hammell of Andover; one brother, Frederick Parker of West Salem, Ohio and one sister, Mrs. Maude Baldwin of Rochester. Burial was in Valley Brook Cemetery.

Andover Village Board of Trustees held a meeting Tuesday evening to listen to a discussion by Engineer C. L. Elmerdorf of Rochester, of the firm of William S. Lozier Inc., consulting engineers, regarding the condition of Andover Water Supply and how best to remedy its faults and give an adequate supply of pure water.

There are 1,234 voters registered in Andover for the Fall Election. 584 are registered in District 1 and 650 in District 2.

Miss Mary Birmingham, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Birmingham of Rexville, and Donald Harkenrider, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Harkenrider of Greenwood, were married October 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Nobles and daughter, Patricia of Towanda Pa., were weekend guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nobles of Shovel Hollow.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Green and daughter Orpha, attended a family birthday dinner honoring three members of the family, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Green in East Valley, Sunday.

The Andover American Legion Band Officers for the coming year are: Lloyd W. Robinson President, Oliver Kemp Manager, Francis Vickers Secretary, C. C. Backus Treasurer, A. L. Bloss Director and J. L. Lewis Assistant Director. They will start rehearsals for next year, the first of January. Previous to the business meeting, the American Legion entertained the Band to an Oyster Supper in the Legion Hall.

Hunting Season opened Monday at Noon with lots of hunters, but very little game reported.

Frank Holmes and his truck are now missing from South Hill as his work has terminated after 28 years service on the Andover Oil Lease. Glenn Schoonover remains as pumper for the new company.

John Folsing of South Bethlehem, Albany County, was a guest of his brother, Michael Folsing from Friday until Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Snyder and son, Craig and daughter, Nancy Jane and Mrs. C. E. Brown, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Smith of Woodhull, Sunday.

Miss Reta Elliott left Tuesday for Brockport, where she attended the funeral of her grandfather, Mr. Mulligan, Wednesday A. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sutherland attended the funeral of his aunt Mrs. Vinnie Howell at Shinglehouse, Pa., Friday.

October 29, 1937

Prof. Burton Crandall, Assistant Treasurer and teacher of Economics of Alfred University, was the guest speaker at the Exchange Club, Wednesday evening. He told of his journey across the United States, where he was best man at his cousin Wayne Crandall's wedding last summer and then continued on to the Coast to visit his father, Prof. Benj. Crandall at Oakland, Calif., whom most Andover people remember.

William Lang, Manager of Andover Market Basket and Francis Vickers, Ernest Andrus and Mr. Biggs attended the meeting in Wellsville, Tuesday evening, when the appointment of Robert Blessing, manager of the Bolivar Market Basket Store, as Supervisor of Allegany Market Basket District, (Continued on Page 3)

THE ANDOVER NEWS

Published Weekly at the News Printing House, Andover, N. Y. Jeanne Backus Allen and Ralph A. Allen, Owners, Andover, N. Y. Entered as Second Class Mail Matter at the Post Office at Andover, N. Y., 11801 under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879.

Subscription Price: $5.00 per year