Gospel Musical To Be Held Sunday July 30

A Gospel Musical treat is coming to us in Andover and Greenwood, on Sunday night, July 30, at 7:30 in the U. Methodist Church in Andover, and Monday night, July 31, at 7:30 in the U. Methodist Church in Greenwood.

Bruce and Joyce Heacock will present Gospel-singing numbers of their own composing, as well as contemporary Gospel songs familiar to all. They also have tapes of their music. They have out an album, "Come, Meet The Master", of their original Gospel music recorded right in their own home. They spread the Gospel in their own way by doing this.

The Heacocks have travelled to many churches and groups in Western N. Y., asking them to come to give them their Gospel-singing concerts. Almost every weekend they perform their Gospel-musical ministry somewhere. Bruce Heacock is director of instrumental music in Medina Junior High School, and Joyce, his wife, was teacher of music in Medina Elementary School. Both are graduates of Fredonia SUNY, and both are members of Millville U. Methodist Church near Medina, where Rev. A. Howard Gabriel was pastor.

The public is invited to hear them. Refreshments will be served by the ladies of Andover and Greenwood U. M. Churches.

Completes Course

George McCaffery, Installer-Repairman for Iroquois Telephone Corporation at Alfred, New York has completed a course in coin telephone station installation and repair at the Continental Telephone System Training Center near Amherst, Virginia.

Each student completing the 10-day course is able to analyze, troubleshoot, and repair pay station telephone equipment.

The first part of the course concentrates on the basic principles of electricity as applied to modern coin telephones. Before graduation, the student is able to read a paystation circuit diagram, install coin telephones, booths, and boothettes, locate and repair troubles using special testing equipment on multi-slot and single slot units.

McCaffery has been with the
