Baskets of mixed colored gladiolus with bows decorated the altar of the First Baptist Church of Andover, N. Y., at 1:30 p. m. August 12, 1978, for the double ceremony of Miss Evelyn Lehman of Andover and Rodney Fanton of Wellsville, N. Y.

The Rev. Raymond MacCumber performed the ceremony. Mrs. William Monroe was organist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lehman of 7 Rochambeau Ave. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fanton of River Road, Wellsville, are the bridegroom's parents.

Given in marriage by her parents and escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a gown of white Sata-peau with a high neckline and long fitted sleeves. The bodice was appliqued with Venise lace and a satin ribbon. Her demi-bell floor length skirt was bordered in ruffled hem line and trimmed with matching lace. She wore a white picture hat trimmed with miniature red carnations and baby's breath. Her bride's bouquet was of miniature red carnations, baby's breath, fern and red streamers.

Miss Janet Ryan of Andover cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She chose a powder blue polyknit sleeveless gown, styled with a V neckline, with a long sleeved Venise lace bolero jacket and wore a light blue picture hat. She carried a single tinted rose, with fern and baby's breath and streamers, to match her gown.

The bridesmaids in similar ensembles, were Miss Jeanne Lehman, sister of the bride, wearing mint green, and Miss Mary Fanton, sister of the groom, in dusty rose. They too carried a single tinted rose with fern and baby's breath and streamers to match their gowns.

Myrnie Hall of Fulton, N. Y., was best man. Ushers were Robert Fanton, Jr., brother of the groom and Edward Black, both of Wellsville. They wore boutonnières to compliment the maid of honor and bridesmaids.

A buffet reception was served at the Wellsville Rod & Run Club for approximately 100 guests. Music was provided by Myrnie Hall at the organ.

The bride attended Andover Central School and will graduate from Wellsville Central School in 1979. Her husband attended Wellsville Central School and is engaged in farming, where they are at home at River Road, Wellsville N. Y.
