Cecilia Gavin and Brian C. Lynch Exchange Wedding Vows

The Andover Blessed Sacrament Church, decorated with orange gladioli and yellow mums, was the setting for the marriage of Miss Cecilia Mae Gavin and Brian Charles Lynch, on Saturday, September 9, 1978. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Gavin of Grove Street, Andover, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Lynch of Andover R.D. 2.

The Rev. Francis Zmozynski officiated at the double ring ceremony. Sister Konopa was soloist and Miss Betsy Buckpitt, was organist, both of Canisteo.

The maid of honor was Miss Rose Billings of Wellsville, and bridesmaids were Mrs. Karol Pielow of Hornell, Mrs. Kathleen Kenyon of Andover, and Mrs. Mary Cavanagh of Norfolk, Va., the bride's sisters.

William Dougherty of Elmira was best man. Robert Lynch of Canisteo, brother of the bridegroom, Dennis Ordway of Andover, and Daniel Davis of Rochester were ushers.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a Quince gown with an Empire waistline, high neckline and English neck, accented with seed pearls. Veil lace trimmed the bodice, fitted sleeves and full skirt extending to a chapel train. Matching lace fashioned her cloche-style headpiece with a chapel-length veil. She carried a bouquet of orange roses, daisies and trailing soap anotis.

The maid of honor wore an ice mint green polyester knit gown styled with an accordion pleated skirt, capelet and scoop neckline. Her headpiece was a flower in her hair to match her gown and she carried a bouquet of yellow mums accented with Autumn leaves. The bridesmaids wore matching ice peach gowns. They each wore a matching flower in their hair and carried bouquets of mums and Autumn leaves.

About 250 persons attended the reception at the Hornell Fraternal Order of Eagles Club. Out-of-town guests attended from Rochester, Fairport, Geneseo, LeRoy, Ithaca, Binghamton, Corning, Elmira, Wellsville, Canisteo, Hornell, Richburg, Syracuse and states of Tennessee, New Mexico, Florida and Michigan.

A 1975 graduate of Andover Central School, the bride was graduated in 1977 from St. James School of Radiologic Technology, Hornell. She was employed at St. James Mercy Hospital prior to her marriage.

Her husband is a 1974 graduate of Andover Central School and a 1976 graduate of Wellsville Vocational Division of State University Agricultural and Technical College at Alfred. He is employed as a drafting technician by Corning Glass Works in Wilmington, N.C., where the couple reside at 3314 Wickslow Dr.

Cross Country News

Last week the Andover Cross Country team had their first meet at Wellsville, against Wellsville and Olean. There were 60 runners entered into the race with 45 finishers. Jim Dugan, seemingly with first place wrapped up, slipped and lost ground to an runner and settled for second place. Andover placed four runners in the meet: Jamie McCormick 13th, Mike McNeill 14th, Kevin Perry 16th and Bob Davis 22nd. Over all, Olean took the meet but Andover for the first time in its Cross Country History, took Wellsville 25-30.

Outnumbered by the larger schools and running on a new course, Andover had a fantastic showing and is expected to perform well in this year's invitations.

Boys Soccer

Alfred-Almond 4 — Andover 2

On Friday, October 6, the host Panthers had the 8-0 Eagles grounded until Gary Porter's goal late in the third period gave the Eagles its first two-goal cushion of the game. John Baker gave Alfred-Almond 1-0 and 2-1 leads and after each goal, Andover's Pat Atwell tallied to tie it up. Steve Robertson's goal just 15 seconds before the half, gave the Eagles the lead for good.

John Hitchcock blocked 11 shots for A-A, while Dave Winslow stopped 13 for Andover.

Girls Soccer

Wednesday, Sept. 28, the girls played against Whitesville. Andover won the game 13 to 1.

Tracy Grossman, Deanna Sturdevant, Kelly Dunham, Lisa Howland, Linda Howland, Linda Burns Sue Bliss, Michelle McNeill, Tracy Richardson and Laura Dugan scored for Andover.

Friday, Sept. 29, the Andover girls soccer team had a close game against Belmont.

The score bounced back and forth from Andover to Belmont, which ended up in a tie. The teams went into two 5-minute overtimes. In the last minute of the overtime Tracy Grossman scored which put the Panthers ahead 5-4 to win the game.

The team would like to thank everyone for their support.

Miss Troxell has a No. 1 team this year. They have lost only one game and are tied with Belmont for 1st. Alfred-Almond was in that tie until October 4, when the Panthers beat them. Sue Bliss scored once, Tracy Grossman four times, and Linda Howland got two goals. The final score was 7-2. Good luck in the rest of the season.
